

Audio Walking Tour of Ipswich

This walking tour recounts many of the historic events that occurred in Ipswich, as well as a host of other information such as famous Ipswich artists, agriculture, wildlife, and activities available throughout the town. Enjoy fascinating stories about some of the 50+ First Period houses—more than any other town in America—and discover for yourself why Ipswich is named the “Birthplace of American Independence!”

IPSWICH VISITOR CENTER
36 S. MAIN STREET, IPSWICH, MA 01938
978.356.8540

TOUR FEATURES:

- Fascinating history—The audio for this walking tour is taken directly from local Ipswich historian, Jean Moss, and narrated by her husband, John.
- As much time as you like—Hand-held wands are $8 for the whole day. Pause and resume the tour at your convenience. Please return wands before the Visitor Center closes at 5:00 p.m.
- Self-guided—A detailed map is supplied with all the relevant sites labeled.